Dear Year 6,

Congratulations to each and every one of you on finishing primary school!

I know there will be a lot going on right now. You may be feeling sad to leave your teachers and friends behind, but you may also be excited at the thought of making new friends in your new school. You may be feeling nervous about the move to a new school with new buildings, but you may also be excited about being somewhere different and exploring somewhere new. However you are feeling, I am certain that you will eventually settle down into your new school and thrive.

You will be given lots of new opportunities, and even if it's something you have never done before – maybe especially if it's something you haven't done before! - try saying 'Yes.' Some things might not be for you, but some will, and you never know where they may lead you.

Embrace the changes happening around you. Remind yourself how much you have learned in your time in primary school and know that you will be able to do the same at your new school.

But that's all to come. For now, it's time to enjoy your summer break; you have earned it!

Wishing you all the very best in September,
